

Report-Back from Bethlehem!

Wall separating parts of Bethlehem from itself

Delegate with Bethlehem University students

Elementary school children

Separation wall directly behind UNWRA School

A 15-person delegation with the Cambridge-Bethlehem People-to-People Project (CBPP) has just returned with images, stories and “facts-on-the-ground”.

Come hear for yourself what is happening in Bethlehem. Come see about getting involved.

Wednesday, January 16th, 2008, 6:30-8:30 PM
Cambridge Senior Center, 806 Mass. Ave.

CBPP formed in 2007 to find a human way to address the circumstances facing Palestinians. Bethlehem was chosen in response to a specific call from its citizens, facing tremendous social and economic isolation, to “re-open Bethlehem” to the global community.

Interested in exchanges with Bethlehem?

Delegates met with people in a number of settings who would be interested in exchanges including:

- * Independent and Parochial elementary and secondary schools
- * Bethlehem University faculty and students
- * Rehabilitation Hospital for people with Disabilities
- * Women’s economic development cooperatives
- * Chamber of Commerce
- * Children’s cancer project
- * Human Rights NGO

Interested in having a presentation?

Members of the delegation would be interested in sharing their experiences with organizations. If you would like some of us to come to your school/organization/community, etc, please contact us.
